Mrs. Hargrave Rites Friday

Mother of Mrs. Blair B. Stringfellow Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Frances Lenox Hargrave, 72, widow of Benjamin Worthington Hargrave, who died last night in Ashland, will be held here at 4:30 P. M. Friday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Blair B. Stringfellow, Sr., 1105 West Franklin Street.

The services will be conducted by the Rev. Ernest A. deBordenave, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Alexandria, who is supply minister at St. Paul's, Richmond, in the absence from the city of the Rev. Vincent C. Franks, D. D., the rector. Interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery.

Mrs. Hargrave at the time of her death was visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul McConnell, of Ashland.

A member of an old and prominently related Southern family, she was born in 1867, at Wilson, N. C., and was a daughter of the late John M. Daniel and Mrs. Hele Blair Treadwell Daniel. She was a niece of the late Mrs. Courtney Jenkins, of Richmond, and a first cousin of the late Mrs. Isaac Davenport, of this city.

Mrs. Hargrave and her late husband, Benjamin Worthington Hargrave, resided for about twenty-five years in Atlanta. In later years she had made her home with her son, the Rev. William L. Hargrave, at Cocoa, Fla.

The death of Mr. Hargrave, occurred, in 1907, at Atlanta.

Surviving Mrs. Hargrave are three daughters, Mrs. Paul McConnell, of Ashland; Mrs. Blair B. Stringfellow, Sr., of Richmond, and Mrs. Pearse Thomas, of Temple Terrace, Fla., and four sons, James Hargrave, of San Antonio, Texas; the Rev. William L. Hargrave, of Cocoa, Fla.; John Daniel Hargrave, of Atlanta, and Benjamin Worthington Hargrave, Jr., of Rome, Ga.
